Great Popular Triumph!

WELL DONE FOR MILWAUKEE

The Sham-Democracy Nowhere!

The special election in this City, yester day, to fill the office of Tressurer, was vigorously contested and called out a large vote. The Republicans, thinking their candidate, JOHN H. TESCH, fairly entitled to the post, after the result of the Charter Election in April, did not wish to make a party issue, but appealed, confidently, to men of all parties, to support Mr. TESCH. The DOUGLAS Democracy, however, were not content with party lines, in order to show their strength in the City of Milwankee. Accordingly they called their "regular" Convention; nominated their "regular" candidate; and appealed to all the "regular Domocrats" in Milwaukee to support Mr. BAUMBAGH.

The result of that appeal is herewith sub-

The average profits of the house for the last two or three years have been estimated at £40,000 per annum, but it is evident that these must have been delusive, and an opinion prevails that the liquidation will be disastrous. At a private on the pound was held out, but there are few the best of the screen propeller for ocean narigation, and the total of bills which they all be realized.

The event has thrown the entire leather trade into confusion, and about a half dozen that the screw might have been adopted in or a dozen smaller houses are expected to succumb. The stoppage of Messra, J. H. SMITH & Co, of Bermonsday, and Messrs. SMITH, PATIENT & SMITH were also notified yesterday, and other names were subsequently mentioned. From the manner in which the various houses that are breaking down have drawn upon each other, there is every reason to assume that the entire mischief has arisen not from any unavoidable revulsion or misfortune connected with this department of commerce, but from a too ganger. SMITH, PATIENT & SMITH were also notified guine resort to those facilities of credit which are among the worst features of modern-business.

HORSE RAIL ROADS-INFORTANT DECIS 10x .- The Boston Daily Advertises of July 16th contains a report of a most important decision in the Massachusetts Supreme Court respecting horse railroads. It is the case of a man who was convicted in the lower court erept slowly along the Eastern horizon. of obstructing the Malden and Melrose horsecars, and who carried the case up to the Supreme Court, where it was argued by the Attorney General on one side and by Messrs. CHAMPLES and SHATTUCK on the other .--The opinion is of great length. It appears to go to the extent of satablishing that the horse-cars have a prior right to the streetsthat if a person using the highways in the ordinary manner and going at the usual rate of speed, obstructs a horse-par, he is liable to a penalty, and that no other proof of malice is necessary than that the defendant knowingly and intentionally obstructs the car, although he may have made only the ordinary use of the street, and had no actual malice. The opinion of the court was given by Chief Justice SHAW.

THE DROWNING OF THE FOUR BOXS .--The names of the four boys drowned near New York, on Thursday morning last, were JOHN C. FRERMER, H. J. HUFF, JOHN CATON and WM. H. HOLLY. They were all boys attached to an Orphan Asylum, and had been to that law, when he must know that if it is accustomed to go in bathing frequently at the anne apot, accompanied by a teacher, as they were on this fatal occasion. The age of two of them was fourteen, and of the other two respectively eleven and nine. HoLLY and Hurr were colored boys. The "Dog Law."

Governor RANDALL is constantly receiving letters, enquiring whether the "Dog Law" was signed, and complaining that it is diffi. cult to enforce. He has, in reply to one of these communications, written a letter, of which the following is a copy. It will be seen that the Governor expresses very decided opinion upon the subject:

Every human life lost by the bite of a dog is worth more than all the dogs in the country. MORE DEMOCRATIC TROUBLES IN PENSEYL-(Collingwood Line,) off Shirisy Canal, Wis.,

As a guest at an inn, after a brief trial of the accommodations of his hotel, directly proceeds to enquire of himself how he likes sylvabla. Gen Foster, the Democratic can sylvania. Gen Foster, the Democratic candidate for Governor, has been lying low and keeping shady in the hope of receiving the united vote of both wings of the party. An indicorest journal, however, in the Breckin-ridge interest, having announced that Foster approved the fusion movement, recommended by the State Central Committee, the ire of the blorder way has been accounted. the Donglas men has been aroused, and they are commencing to poke all sorts of inconve-nient questions at Mr. Foster, which, so far, he has not answered. The indications are that there will not only be two Democratic Electoral tickets in Penusylvania, but possi-bly two Democratic candidates for Governor, which will, of course, give the Republicans

THE REAL CONTEST. In fact the contest now seems to be rather between the two wings of the Democracy, to determine which shall hold the regular organization after the 4th of March next-the election of Lincoln being conceded.

THE BELL MOVEMENT. It is true that such pretended Bell men as Brooks of New York, who is really opposed to him are everywhere urging the formation of a Bell electoral ticket to defeat Liucoln; but since 1856 that game is well understood and won't work. From all I can learn a Bell electoral ticket in Illinois will rather benefit than injure Lincoln, as in 1858 a very large portion of the Americans voted outright for Douglas. The people understand this "Third Party" dodge perfectly well, and cannot be deceived a second time. They have no idea of repeating the folly of 1858 by throwing away their votes.

BUCHANAN FAYORS FUSION. It is understood that our venerable President, otherwise known as the "Old Public Functionary," favors the Douglas and Breckinridge fusion in New York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey, but not elsewhere.

His hope is that Lincoln's election by the It is hope is that Lincoln's election of people may thus be prevented; that the Honse will elect nobody, owing to the peeuliar divisions existing there, and that Lane and Hamlin will get into the Senate, where, of course Lane will be elected. A very pretain that one easily spoiled.

It was originally intended to give Heenan a grand ovation upon his arrival here, but we are glad to learn that it is not probable that any such discreditable exhibition will we deprecated anything of the and preferred to

The news from New York and New Jersey, as well as Pennsylvania, is particularly cheering. In the city of New York, a very large neeting is in progress to night, com-posed of persons who did not act with the Republicans in 1856, but who are now de-termined to support Lincoln and Hamlin.— The Tribuns estimates the Republican gain in the city of New York over 1856, at not less than 10,000, when I believe Fromont and 70 000 majority over Buchanan in the State.

THE NEW JERSEY PRESS. In New Jersey, there are in the entire State twenty-two journals for the Republi-cans, against fourteen for both wings of the Democracy; and two only, of no particular influence, for Bell and Everett. These, of course, are simply acting in the interest of Douglas, and had better declare for him at

Eds. Gazette:—Notice having been given for two or three days that William Dilaher "through good as well as evil report," took the stand, and in a very foroible manner gave his reasons for becoming a Democrat and then for becoming a Republican.

The popular mind is fast changing for Lin-coln. The oldest citizens say they have never attended so enthusiastic a meeting since 1840.

At the close of the meeting it was an nounced that Fred Hassaurek, of your city would visit us at any time we choose, which produced cheer after cheer. You may set old Meigs down 800 majority for Lincoln, Hamlin and Horton. By inserting this notice in your paper you

"THE COUNTRY SAFE."—The Missour; Republican has changed its mind. It now believes that the Demograpy will not dissolve the Union in consequence of the election of Lincoln to the Presidency. Hear it: "It must be confessed as somewhat remarkable, that the more imminent the election of a Black Republican President, and the incoming of a Black Bepublican Adminis-tration, the less violent is the disunion outory which has so stunned the ears of the people for a few years past. * *

Should Lincoln come in, they (the Democrate) will be law-abiding citizens; taking good offices from the dispenser of executive patronage, whenever there happen to be no Republicans at hand to step in, serving their Republicans at hand to step in, serving their country patriotically and peacefully. Not withstanding their former braggart boasts and the furious din and uproar they set up against the Union, which they swore would go to pieces, whenever a Black Republican was elected, the dulcet notes they now emit are like the cooing heard in a dove cote.—As they raised the cry of "wolf!" when the danger was distant, and are now fairly composed when the danger is near we may now. danger was distant, and are now larry com-posed when the danger is near, we may pos-sibly conclude that they really never had any fears, nor any intention of acting on the fears they leigned. Return of the Unbelted Knight of Muscle. From the New York Herald, 16th.

Heenan has come back without a belt after all. The victor has returned without the appills of war. The governing classes have been expecting for a long time to welcome back the hero who so valorously maintained the honor of the American eagle against the appoint of the Reitel. Honor wor, the new assents of the British lion upon the now historic field of Farutorough; but they hop-ed to greet him encircled with the duplicate champion's kelt—the trophy of a victory so stub oraly won and so happily acknowledged. But they are deomed to disappointment for it appears that the representative of American muscle returns without even the counterfeit presentment of the prize, to win which he left home and his friends and became a temporary exile in the land of the stranger. He comes back to us a chevalier same peur, same reproche, and same a belt. That guerdon of the prize ring, it seems, is unpaid for, and is held as a hostage for the solvency of the We heard long ago that John Bull would never permit the American eagls to carry off from England either the original belt, or the copy for which the British public so mag-nauimensly open d a subscription list, which they forgot to close with the sum total neces sary to pay for the silver badge of muscular prowess presented to the B-nicia infant some half a doz-n times with dramatic effect before admiring and applauding andlences.

This act on the part of John Ball is only in keeping with a great many other little tricks which he is accustomed to play in his dealings with the world; among the rest, with his conduct at the fight at Faroborough, where he cut the ropes, ran down the Amerioan eagle at the very moment when he was about to clap his wings, and prevented a de-cisive termination of the grand battle. A great deal has been said about the love of fair lay which characterizes the British lion; but fter jockeying the Benicia Boy out of his let in this shabby fashion, we hope that we shall hear no more of the magnanimity an fair play of that spurious specimen of animal royalty. If the American champion was disappointed, however, in not hearing off a belt, he must have been consoled yesterday by the homage paid him by the chining lights of pugilism who attended his levee on that "beautiful but exposed island"—as Kosauth called it—where he made a brief sojourn on his way to the city.

that any such discreditable exhibition will take place. We deprecated anything of the kind from the beginning, and preferred to leave to the peers, members of parliament, merchants, ofergy and bishops of England the undivided honor of exalting the prizering into a respectable institution, and receiving the pugilist as a hero. The intelligent classes in this community have no says. gent classes in this community have no sym pathy with, and show no countenance to, either the sport or the participants therein. We had hoped that Heenan would not renew his balligerent career on his return to the country; but it appears from his statements in England with reference to a contest with Morrissey, that he is spoiling for a fight. It appears that he wants to win a belt very badly, and as he has been cheated out of one on the other side of the Atlantic, he is deter mined, if possible, to win one on this side

Douglas and Bell-Everett—Strange Bedfellows. Correspondence of the N. Y. Express.

WASHINGTON, July 13, 1860.
A prominent citizen of Illinois writes to his friends in this city, that if a Bell and Everett Electoral ticket be run in that State, Douglas will carry it. The same informa-tion has been received from reliable sources in that State. By all means, therefore, let the Union men take the field without delay. Wby they should hesitate is somewhat of a mystery. "It is difficult to reconcile the private letters arriving here by each European steamer, with the published market reports, if there is any proper connection between the harvests and the price of breadstuffs as cause and effect. The letters are in one uniform strain of depression and apprehension. A private letter from Yorkshire, Eng., dated after the middle of June, reports a frost every night during the previous week. Another ary night during the previous week. Another letter speaks of thousands of acres of low lands still under water, and not availof the fands still under water, and not available for turnips, which, as our readers know, are largely depended on for stall-fed outtle.—
Still another says "the harvest here will be very late, and deficient beyond the present popular apprehension." In the meantime there is no excitement among the holders of breadstuffs, and the London and Liverpool markets are reported as very tame, even be-yond ordinary precedent. Probably one rea-son for this quiet is to be found in the pre-vailing impression that the surplus in this country will be available at a very moderate

This evening the annual address before the Alumnæ of the College will be given by Prof. J. D. BUTLER, of the State University, at the North Presbyterian Church, commen eing at 8 o'clock. The elequence and ability of this gentleman are so well known and his lectures of last winter at the Teachers' Institute, so well remembered, that there will undoubtedly be a full attendance at his lec-

Last evening it was understood by a few members of the Wide-Awake Club of this nity, that the turn-out in honor of the Renight. An impromptu meeting of the Club was held, and the sense of the meeting was in favor of a torch-light procession to-night. In accordance with this determination, the Wide-Awakes will meet at their head-quarters this evening. We understand that they will turn out about one hundred uniforms. and several hundred torches. They will be accompanied in their march through our streets by a band, with which they will proceed to Mr. TESCH's residence to serenade and congratulate him. The procession will be a large and imposing one.

A WINDY CONTEST-YANKER DOODLE ON AN EXTENSIVE SCALE .- The most exciting and amusing incident of the election yesterday was a blowing contest between the bands of the two rival candidates, BACH's Band on the Republican side, and the Milwaukee City Band on the Democratic. The two Bands, each drawn by one of BROCKWAY'S open busses, met opposite the Sentinel office, a little before four o'clock, and drawing up at the same time immediately commenced playing in opposition, encouraged by the friends of the respective Candidates, and continued until nearly sax o'clock-the crowd and excitement increasing all the while, until the police prudently interfered, and the contest therefore ended in a "drawn battle," During the last hour both bands played Yankee Doodle with all their might, evincing about an equal amount of pluck on both sides. We are frank to say that the

as noise was concerned, but the harmony was all on the R-publican side-not at all inap-propriete. Some of the Douglas men undertook, to improve the occacion, to get up a cheer for their champion, but rather missed it. They had a large placard displayed over their band, but its appearance was greeted only by a few hourse yells, and was soon laid aside, -inst as the Little Giant will be by-and-by. This demonstration for DougLas of course brought out the Republican boys, and before the Squatterites had displayed their placard five minutes, a huge rail was elevated from the Republican side and then three such cheers as went up from that crowd for "OLD ABE." we have not heard equalled since the applause that was manifested upon the nominstion of John F. POTTER the other day. All this time the two bands kept up "Yankee Doodle," without intermission; and it is the apinion of many who witnessed the contest, that if the police had not interfered, they never would have stopped, so long as the sup. ply of lager was kept up.

WIDE-AWAKE UNIFORMS. - We would call attention to the advertisement of Messrs: J. A. Smith & Co., of Chicago, who are largely engaged in getting up and supplying the "Wide-Awake" Clubs through the North-

Sanater Seward Coming to Wisconsin. We are glad to hear that the illustrious Schator from New York, in response to an invitation from our Republican State Central Committee, has signified his purpose to pay a visit to Wisconsin, during the present season, and deliver one address here to the peopie. The time he will fix himself, leaving it to our Central Committee to designate the place. We think that our city would be the most convenient point for the gatheringwhich will undoubtedly be the largest popular assemblage ever seen in the "Badger State":- and therefore hope that the Central Committee will select Milwankee for the place of meeting. This would accommodate the Lake Shore counties, by means of the Milwaukee and Chicago Railroad and the steamboats; and the interior counties by the SEWARD.

A REPUBLICAN PAPER DESTROYED AND 178 EDITOR DRIVEN FROM TOWN .- Mr. S. HARBAUGH, of Lexington, Mo., publisher of the Advertiser at that place, raised the names of LINCOLN and HAMLIS at the head of its columns. Thereupon E. WISNER, agent for the Ætna Insurance Company, notified Mr. HARBAUGH that he had cancelled the policy of insurance on his office, and gave notice that not another number of the paper should be issued. After this a mob of slaveholders gathered, seized upon the edition of the paper just ready for mailing, and drove HAR-BAUGH from the town. WHAT THE BRECKISKIDGE MEN ARE DO-ING .- The N. Y. Tribune is authoritatively informed that the BRECKINEIDGE Committee in New York have raised with case all the money they need for the vigorous prosecution of the campaign. They have already made arrangements for a thorough organization of the State, and will at once proceed to prepare for the conflict in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Everywhere they mean to purify the Democratic Party by the expulnion of every shade of Douglasism. In 1864 they expect to stand forth as the only ortho dox and genuine Democratio body, leaving the Squatter Sovereignty nowhere.

They were included in mine, and our exports of flour for the last four years were shown to be $17,000,000. These figures I ask no one to believe, because I, or Mr. CROUNSE may certify them to be correct. I wish every one to consult the Secretary's report and satisfy himself.

Mr. Colven says the Treaty was made more especially to benefit the trade between the U. S. and Canada. I believe it was specially made for no such purpose. It was intended by the British Government to benefit phatically, and demanded proof-and his the trade between the U.S. and all the British North American Provinces, and if we abrogate the Treaty in the case of one, it is vir-

Should the treaty be annulled, the Canadians will soon, by the aid of British capital, develops their own manufacturing resources, and we will then be obliged for all time to some to keep the nine millions dollars worth of goods which we annually send them over what we receive, while their breadstuffs will continue to meet us in the markets of Europe. Mr. Colver asks why I do not recommend full free trade with Canada. I do most heartily recommend it, and as I look upon Reciprocity as a half-way house, I think we ought to go ahead, and not by atrogating the treaty retreat from our own advalued position. E.D. Cattle Disease in Dane County. It having been runnored that several cases of "pleuro-pneumonia" had made their appearance among the cattle in Windsor, Dane County, Professor Hoyr, of the Wisconsin Farmer, made an investigation into the facts and reports as follows:

STATE AGRICULTURAL ROOMS. | July 16th, 1880. | Messas. Editors:-Having noticed the reports of a new and alarming disease among the eattle of the town of Windsor, in this county, and knowing that the public mind, by reason of the prevalence of "pleuro pneumouia" in the East, was in a condition to be greatly excited by accounts like those in circulation, I deemed it my daty to visit the locality immediately, and make an investiga-tion. Accordingly, on Saturday, the 14th inst., in company with Harrison Reed, Esq., of the Journal, I drove out to the "Porter Farm," where the disease was said to be prevailing at the time.

BY S. J. WHITTIER,

Bland as the morning's breath of June,
The south west breezes play,
And through its haze the Winter's neon,
Seems warm as Suamer's day.
The snow-plumed angel of the north
Has dropped his icy spear;
Aşain the messy earth locks forth,
Again the streams gush clear,

The fox his hill-side den formkes. The muskrut leaves his nook,
The blue-bird in the meadow brakes
Is singing with the brook.
"Bear up, 0 mo her nature,"

So in these winters of the sout, By winter blusts and drear O'erswep: from memory's frozen pole, Will sumy days appear.

Revicing hope and faith, they show who sout he little compare of the south of t The soul its living powe.

And how beneath the winter's snow, Lie gems of summer flowers. The night is mother of the day,
The winter of the spring;
And ever upon old decay,
The greenest mosses cling.
Behind the cloud the startight lurks,
Through showers the sundeams fall,
For God, who leveth all his works,
Has left his hope with a i.

RUST IN WHEAT-ITS CAUSE,-The cause frust in wheat has generally been attributed to wet, warm, lowery weather, at a cer-tain stage of its growth—that is, when the berry is in its milk. A member of the Winnebago (III.) Farmers' Club gives his theory

"We generally find that the rust makes its
that the rust makes its this extreme hot weather which we have in the forepart of July. Now, sir, let it rain one hour, either fast or slow, then let sun-shine out as hot as it generally does at that season of the year, and so it may continue to do for a half dozen times a day, alternately, and at night what is the result? Why, the rain has all run off the stalk down into the rain has all run off the stalk dawn into the roots, to send forth nourishment to the stalk. THE ST. CHARLES, FORMERLY THE No rain adheres to the stalk; but let the night be warm and close, there will be a heavy dew; it sticks to the stalk, or leaf, wherever it falls, and a hot sun the follow-live medicate. The stantion is among the most pleasants and central in heavy. night be warm and close, there will be a heavy dew; it sticks to the stalk, or leaf, wherevar it falls, and a hot sun the following morning dries it on the stalk, or leaf, which proves a deadly poison to wheat or oats. Now, let it rain the following morning, after the dew, and there will be no rust to hut the wheat. I would say to all farmers who chance to read this article, to examine for themselves. I have never known this kind of dew to fall, except in the exterme hot weather in the month of July, and I have known wheat entirely destroyed by rust, when there had been no rain to cause the rust on the grain when it had been ing morning dries it on the stalk, or leaf, BARLEY .- Our climate is not well adapted for the production of the best samples of spring barley, the growing is too short and hot. In this section, at least, the crop is becoming more and more uncertain, and many coming more and more uncertain, and many farmers have nearly abandoned its cultivation. Like wheat, it is liable to be attacked by the midge. Whether, like spring wheat, late sowing will enable it to escape this insect we cannot say. The rule hitherto has been to sow as early as the ground could be got in proper condition; but fair crops have been obtained when sown as late as the middle of May. Rapley likes a warm entire. > RALPH FARNAM, THE LAST SURVIVOE OF THE BATTLE OF BUNKER HILL.—Unless there were two Ralph Farnams of Lebanon, at the time of the breaking out of the Revolutionary war, there is reason to believe that the Ralph Farnam who attained his one hun-dred and fourth year on the 7th inst.,entered the service a month earlier, at least, than stated in the communication which was pub-lished in the Traveller of Wednesday eve-ning. It is a matter of no great moment to ining. It is a matter of no great moment to the public, perhaps, whether he entered the iservice one mouth, or one day, before the lattile of Bunker Hill, but still accuracy is always desirable. It appears from the Ravolutionary rolls now ou lie in the office of the Secretary of State, that Ralph Farnam, of Lebanou, emisted under Capt. Phillip Hubbard, of Berwick, on the 15th of May, 1775, more than a mouth before the bettle of bard, of Berwick, on the 15th of May, 1775, more than a month before the battle of Bunker Hull, and that he served as a private in Capt. Hubbard's company, in Col. James Scammon's Regiment, two months and sixteen days from this date. The pay roll upon which these facts appear was made up to the last of July, and shows that there had been paid him the sum of two pounds for services, the remaining sum of three pounds and four shillings being still uppsid. Tendays before he enlisted into Capt. Hubbard's company, David Farnam of Lebanon, had enlisted into Capt. Ebenezer Sullivan's company, likewise belonging to Col. Scammon's regiment. He served two months and twenty-six days. Two years later, to-wir: in 1777, Ralph Farnam, of Lebanon, is found doing duty as a sergeant under Capt. Samuel Grant, in Col.
